

I've been associated with Judie for a number of years and she continues to perform at a very high work level. She is accomplished, pays tremendous attention to detail, which is an absolute must in her field. Judie also acts in a very professional manner, treating her clients and peers with the utmost respect. In return, she receives the respect that is deserved. Over the years, Judie has developed a character that is sincere and trusting, which are key elements to her success.

I have known Judie for nine years in a business environment. Judie is a very professional and very competent contributor in business activities. She has extensive experience in business practices, and management. Judie works quite well with all levels of corporate and division management as well as with peer groups. Judie is a self starter and demonstrates pride and confidence in her accomplishments.

I had the pleasure of working with Judie I requested information on many occasions, and she handled every request promptly, professionally, and efficiently. Judie always took the time to do the necessary research to ensure accuracy. Her follow-through was exceptional, and she always had a great attitude. I hope to have the opportunity to work with her again.
